Squire Schultze has received notification from Commissioner Lochren that a pension has been granted to Mrs. Ella McGill Hill, widow of the late John Hill, of No. 41 Twenty-fifth street. It was granted on November 9 and is at the rate of $8 per month.

Work at the Fair Grounds.

The work of making the improvements at the State Fair grounds is being pushed rapidly forward. About twenty-six teams are engaged in the track work, the widening of which will add much to the attractiveness of races in the future. Yesterday the task of demolishing the old grand stand was begun.

The Ivy Blossom's New Boat.

The Ivy Blossom athletic club, a well-known organization of South Wheeling, has purchased a house-boat, which they are fixing up in elegant style to use as club headquarters. They brought it up the river yesterday and it will be moored at the foot of Twenty-third street. The club is in a thriving condition and the fine quarters will add to the popularity of the club.

Transfers of Real Estate.

The following transfers of real estate were admitted to record in Clerk Hook's office yesterday:

Deed made November 21, 1894, by Zachariah T. Springer and wife to S. N. Hughes for a parcel of land near Roney's Point, for $2,900.

Deed made September 23 by A. Wayman and others to Simon Bapp for a parcel of land in Adams district for $125.

Cheap Ice.

Wheeling consumers are bound to have cheap ice next summer if competition will have anything to do with it. The Consumers Ice and Storage Company, which was recently chartered, have selected as a location for their plant the property in the rear of J. W. Hunter's establishment, and will commence the erection of their works early in the spring. The contractors are the well known firm of C. P. Corlett & Co., of Cleveland, O. The factory will have a capacity of forty tons per day.

An Involuntary Bath.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Nellie Sweeney-Palmer was standing on the float of the yacht ferry at the foot of Twelfth street, when the Liberty, in backing out, swung against the float with such force as to throw Mrs. Palmer into the water, from which unpleasant position she was speedily rescued. She sustained no injury except a severe nervous shock, which prevented her from filling her place on the musical programme at the City Hospital Bazaar last evening.

He Was Instructed.

A new gas main was placed in position yesterday on the west side of Market street between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets. A large force of men were employed and the street was considerably torn up. A prominent Democrat passing along the street asked what the men were doing. An other gentleman standing there remarked "that the Democrats needed a little more light on the subject and that they were putting in a new gas main." The prominent Democrat seemed to believe the statement.

Squire Gillespie's Court.

There was a row in the Smedley family yesterday which points to a case of nibby mother-in-law or a bad article of son-in-law. Henry and Mary Smedley were arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Charles Clark, their son-in-law, charging them with a breach of the peace. The troubles of this family will be aired before Justice Gillespie on next Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

George Forsythe, who was arrested some days ago as being implicated in the robbery of a Pittsburgh horse dealer named Bowman, in East Wheeling, and who was sent to jail to await a hearing on the charge of being a person of bad fame, was brought before Justice Gillespie last evening, who discharged him from further custody.

Funeral of Mrs. Wilson.

The funeral of Mrs. Marietta Wilson, whose death occurred Tuesday, will take place this afternoon from the residence of her husband at the corner of Thirty-ninth and Eoff streets. The Women's Relief Corps of this city, of which the deceased was a member, will attend in a body and a large number will be present. The interment will take place at the Peninsular cemetery. The deceased was the wife of James F. B. Wilson and was held in high esteem by her great number of acquaintances. The husband has the deep sympathy of all who know him. Mrs. Wilson had been in bad health for more than a year previous to her death. She was forty-two years of age.

Cheap Pork.

What is more appetizing than a delicious sparerib? Owing to the low rate hogs are selling at the present time Messrs. F. Schenk & Sons are prepared to furnish at the lowest prices of the market choice spare ribs, oaf, tenderloin and backbone, and consumers would do well to make their purchases at once before the rates are advanced, as these favorable conditions will be of but short duration. Be sure to call at Schenk's meat emporium, Market street, before buying. You are bound to be satisfied both with the quality of the meat and the prices.

Business Men's Lunch.

THEY WILL RESUME.

The Local Factories of the United States Glass Company

WILL START WITH NON-UNION MEN.

The Date of Resumption is Not Known, According to a Representative of the Company—The Glassworkers Say it is an Impossibility, as the Men Cannot be Secured.

Yesterday there was a report in circulation throughout the city that the glass strike which has been on for the last two years between the United States Glass Company and the American Flint Glass Workers' Union showed symptoms of being adjusted. The report was thoroughly investigated and seems to be without authenticity.

A gentleman connected with the United States Company, and one who is in every way likely to be cognizant of the arrangements governing the workings of that company, said that the general office at Pittsburgh reported the fact that on Monday six members of the glassworkers' union had returned to work in Pittsburgh and Glassport and on Tuesday three more had left the ranks of the strikers and returned to work. This was regarded as an indication that the organization of the strikers was being broken and that a general break would follow.

The same gentleman, in answer to a question as to the probable starting of the local United States factories, said that they would be started with non-union men, but how soon was not known. The company has now but three idle plants, one at Greensburg, Pa., and the two here. The probability is that the ones here will be the next to resume.

The local glassworkers said that their organization in Wheeling was as strong now as at the beginning. The local organization has not received information of any break in the Pittsburgh union, as they would in the event of a general return of the strikers. One gentleman spoke of the resumption of the local factories with non-union men, and said that such had been the current rumor for some time, but that the men could not be secured to run the works.

As far as the local glassworkers are concerned the strike is not broken and will not be in the immediate future. They are also of the opinion that if anything like a break among the Pittsburgh men had occurred on Monday the union here would have been notified.

Novelties in Glass.

The West Virginia Glass Works is bringing out two new lines for the new year, and these, together with the cuts, etc., will be ready early in December. One of these, No. 213, is one of the best lines ever manufactured. It consists of thirty-five pieces, made in crystal, with ruby and amber decorations. The goods are massive, very artistic, and for workmanship and brilliancy are not excelled. The ware looks very much like cut glass and is bound to sell. The other new line is practically plain, made for engraving and etching. This, too, will be a good seller.

STATE SENATOR WORLEY TALKS.

One of the Hold-overs From the Preston-Monongalia District for Elkins.

An INTELLIGENCER reporter had a chat yesterday with Hon. W. G. Worley, of Preston, hold-over senator from the Eleventh district. With regard to the United States senatorship Senator Worley said:

"I am for Mr. Elkins because we made him our leader and won under his leadership; because he is thoroughly equipped for the place and will do the state good service. Mr. Elkins will take a foremost position in the senate from the time he enters it. He will get the caucus nomination without trouble, and of course that means his election."

"Senator, are you a candidate for the presidency of the senate?"

"I would be very much pleased if that honor were conferred on me. I am about to conclude my second term of service, eight years in all, a longer continuous service than anybody else in the state senate, and it would be gratifying to end my term as presiding officer of the body. But I wish to see everything done for the best, and if my election is not thought to be for the best I have no desire to press for it."

A FAITHLESS WIFE

And a Young Mill Worker in Trouble. Consequences of Unlawful Love.

The clean record at the Bellaire jail was broken yesterday, when William Brennan, a worker in the Etna-Standard mill, and Mrs. William Hallett were locked up by Constable James Richardson and Officer Strobel. Mrs. Hallett has a husband and two children living in Bellaire, but she became so "fly" that they separated, she going to Etna-ville and living there with the man who was arrested with her. The husband of the woman made an affidavit against both, charging them with unlawful cohabitation, before Squire Mason, and the officers found the guilty pair in a house in Etna-ville, which Brennan had rented and was "rooming with the woman in charge," as he says. Brennan is a single man and looks like a well-to-do workman. He did not enjoy being put in jail and telephoned to relatives by marriage in this city to secure his release, but no relief had been extended yesterday evening.

The woman sent for a single man in this city to go her bail and he consented, but the squire refused to take him, much to the satisfaction of the embarrassed young man. The time for their hearing has not yet been fixed.

A Child Enjoys

YESTERDAY AND TO-MORROW!

Yesterday's "ifs" are To-Morrow's FACTS

Once we said, "If we could get a store on Twelfth street," and then, "If we had a whole building," and again, "If the building had several floors, with good light"—the legions of restless "IFS" have inspired progress. WE GOT THE STORE ON TWELFTH STREET—and "the whole building," and "plenty light" Other "ifs" have been realized. Still others arise.

Only last week we were saying, "If we had more of those elegant Blue and Black $10, $12 and $15 Kersey Overcoats—LAST WEEK'S "IFS" ARE TO-DAY'S "FACTS." Our tables are loaded down with new and fashionable Overcoats. More coming every day. The prices are the same as last week, but the garments are better.
